IN SUPPORT OF KITCHENER PUBLIC LIBRARY

Have you ever thought about how the public library impacts your life?

Consider the journeys made possible through the books you read, the entertainment value of a good film, the knowledge gained working alongside a professional librarian and the personal growth you've achieved by attending guest lectures.

The countless ways Kitchener Public Library enriches the community are priceless, but that doesn't mean they don't come at a cost.

As a beneficiary of KPL services, you know that a legacy gift to your public library will be used to enhance the opportunities afforded to the next generation.

Leaving your mark on this community is easy, and we can help.

Get started on leaving your mark, today!

Making provisions now ensures that your intended legacy at KPL is planned and recognized early, leaving less work for your estate executor.

Legacy gifts include: will bequests, life insurance policies, gifts of stocks, bonds and real estate.

Donors are often surprised to learn how impactful a legacy gift can be. Working with KPL's Development Manager, and your financial advisor, planning your legacy will be easy and rewarding.
