

Resources about Race and Social Equity

June 3, 2020

KITCHENER, Ont — Kitchener Public Library is one of 163 public libraries across North America who have signed the Urban Libraries Council's Statement on Race and Social Equity, an indicator of our commitment to stand against racism and injustice.

“The library recognizes that we play an important role in our community’s movement towards racial and social equity. We stand with the communities we serve against racism and injustice.” - Mary Chevreau, CEO.

To support conversations and education about race, racism and resistance, view our collection of titles for adults, teens and kids on #BlackLivesMatter

If there is an item you think we should add to our collection, you can suggest it using our Suggest for Purchase form.

About the Kitchener Public Library

Kitchener Public Library is a hub of activity and one of the most significant community spaces in the City of Kitchener. The library boasts five locations located throughout the city; including the award-winning and recently renovated and expanded Central Library near the downtown core. The library has 102,000 active members and welcomes 1.2 million visitors each year. To learn more about Kitchener Public Library, visit kpl.org. To be the first to find out what's happening at the library, follow @KitchLibrary on Twitter.

- 30 -

For additional information about this release, please contact:

Shirley Luu

Manager, Digital Marketing Kitchener Public Library

85 Queen St. North, Kitchener, ON, N2H 2H1

Phone: 519.743.0271 x227

shirley.luu@kpl.org