

To inspire and enrich for life

2SLGBTQIA+ Project Archivist
Grace Schmidt Room of Local History
Contract position – Full-time hours anticipated for 16 weeks
Day, evening and weekend shifts
Hourly Rate - $27.80

Kitchener Public Library brings people and ideas together. We welcome our community to engaging spaces where people connect, ideas flourish and lives are transformed. Under the guidance of the Manager, Grace Schmidt Room of Local History and compliant with Rules of Archival Description (RAD), the project archivist will intellectually arrange, describe, and produce finding aids for 2SLGBTQIA+ collections for inclusion in the library's local history digital platform. The project archivist will also create digitization plans compliant with archival best practices, to support the cataloguing and upload of this collection. In addition to intellectual arrangement and digitization work, the project archivist will support the physical processing of collections in collaboration with other staff.

Using materials from the collection, the project archivist will plan an exhibit for display in the Grace Schmidt Room, prepare content for social and digital media platforms to discuss discoveries in the collection, and present a public program highlighting the collections.
