

Director, Systems and Performance Outcomes

A unique systems and performance outcomes leadership opportunity at the Kitchener Public Library.

We are not just about books, and growth is on the agenda!

Kitchener Public Library is a highly respected cultural hub located on the homeland that is the traditional territory of the Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe and Neutral People. Waterloo Region is one of Canada's fastest growing communities. We are proud to announce our sixth library is not only in the works but will also be the first net-zero public building in the Region.

With our growth comes a unique career opportunity for a progressive, innovative Director of Systems and Performance Outcomes who is looking for both their next professional challenge as well as work/life harmony.

You possess a professional MLIS designation and preferably a Public Library Leadership certificate such as Public Library Leaders (Canadian Urban Libraries Council). With up to 7 years of progressive strategic and technical services leadership and a minimum of 3 years being in a people leadership capacity, you will mentor and grow a team to deliver exceptional innovation and services.

You will also possess excellent relationship management & communication skills and have 4 years of data management (preferably with Tableau/Power BI). Additionally, you are a great communicator and dynamic, engaging team leader.

If you wish to be considered for the position, please forward a cover letter and your resume by email to Kartik Kumar at careers@lesp.ca by November 30th, 2022 @11:59 pm.
